Numb. 6636.

The Daily Courant.

Monday, January 28. 1723.

Stockholm, January 15.

THE Great Chamber, called the Knight's Hall, is getting ready with the utmost Expedition against the Time appointed for convening the States of the Kingdom: The Propositions that are to be laid before them are already drawn up, and engrossed. The Russian Minister M. Bestuchef, makes a splendid Figure here at present, and expects more Domesticks and Officers from Moscow to augment his Equipage, from whence 'tis conjectured that at the Arrival of the Duke of Holstein's Agents who are daily expected, he will take on him the Character of the Czar's Ambassadour, in order to sustain with greater Lustre the Interest of his Master: He has again presented another Memorial to have a Centinel placed at his Door, as is allowed to the Swedish Ministers at the Russian Court; but that kind of Ceremonial being not used with Regard to any Russian Minister in the German Courts, and besides, the old Custom of defraying the Expences of Publick Ministers on both Parts being abolished at the Congress of Neustadt, 'tis doubted whether he will succeed in his Memorial.

Vienna, Jan. 9. Advices from Petersbourg say that the Russian Ministers continue to solicite the Minister of Denmark, that the Czar's Ships may have free Passage through the Sound, and that the Dutchy of Slesvick be restored to the Duke of Holstein. The Muscovite Court also has made new Instances with the Emperor in Behalf of the Duke of Mecklenbourg: The Nobility of that Dutchy are very desirous that an End may be put to their Differences with the Duke, because the Troops of Execution are a great Charge to them.

Hague, Jan. 22. [illegible] who is going to Madrid in [illegible] extraordinary from the Czar, was expected [illegible] last Instant for Bilboa. The Directors of the [illegible] Company delivered their Remonstrances some Days ago relating to the Damage they sustain by the Erection of a new East-India Company at Ostend. The States of Friesland have agreed with the Minister of the Elector of Bavaria, to pay to that Prince in six Months Time their Quota of the Sum due from the Republick. Several Persons solicite the Post of Colonel of Guards of the State, vacant by the Death of Mr. Villiers, but 'tis believed their High Mightinesses will give it to the Baron [illegible], Major General, in Recompence of long Services. [illegible] Count de Bavaria is daily expected hither from Munich; he goes afterwards to Madrid, to receive the Order of the Golden Fleece from his Catholick Majesty. The Elector of Bavaria gives him 100,000 Livres towards the Expences of his Journey, besides an Assignment of 600,000 Livres. It is thought, the Court will fix his Residence in this City after his Return from Spain, in case the Chevaliers of Malta receive not their final Commands to repair to the Defence of their Island; but if the contrary happens, 'tis said the Count will go thither with a Regiment of 4000 Men. [illegible] M. Martin, Jun. Painter, and Pensioner in ordinary to the King, who was sent to Rheims to design the Coronation Ceremonies, is working at the Draughts by which the fine Sett of Hangings are to be made at the Gobelins; the Coronation alone will take up four large Pieces; the Royal Feast, the Cavalcade, and the rest of the Ceremonies, will contain four others. M. Martin has already drawn the Battles of the late King of Sweden's Father, which are copying into Hangings at the Gobelins, and is to work next upon the Czar's Battles, for the same Purpose.

Paris, Jan. 30. A Courier from Turin arrived here the 27th, with an Account, that at his setting out from thence, Madame Royale was so ill, that there was little Hope of her Recovery. M. de Belsance, Bishop of Marseilles, is arrived at Court from his Diocese; the King received him with great Marks of Favour, and highly commended him for the good Conduct he observed during the whole Time of the Plague in that City. It is discoursed, that the Duke de Noailles will be permitted to return to Court. A great Number of Dukes and Peers are to meet this Morning in Parliament, [illegible] well of this City, in the Room of his Father the late M. de Bullion; he is afterwards to be installed in the Chatelet by a President à Mortier, and two Councellours of the Great Chamber. At Noon the new Provost gives a magnificent Entertainment at the Hôtel de Ville.

London, January 28.

[illegible] Company's Sea-Stock was [illegible] Half. Bank 136 3 qrs. to 136 1 Half. [illegible] half. Africa 8 3 qrs. [illegible] Insurance 100. York Build[illegible] to 1 Quarter. South Sea Bonds [illegible] Quarter. London Assurance 23 Half.

York-Buildings House, Jan. 26. 1723.

The Governour and Company of Undertakers for Raising the Thames Water in York-Buildings give Notice, That the Drawing of the Third Part of their present Lottery, [illegible] Yesterday, the Tickets for the Fourth Part of the said Lottery will be ready to be delivered out at the Cashier's Office on Monday next, the 28th Instant; and will so continue to be delivered out till Saturday the 16th of February next inclusive; after which Time no more Tickets will be delivered out for the said Fourth Part. [illegible] and Company further give Notice, That the Fifth Part of their Lottery will begin Drawing on [illegible] 25th of February next.

York-Buildings House, Jan. 26. 1723.

The Governour and Company of Undertakers for Raising the Thames Water in York-Buildings give Notice, That Saturday the 23d of February next, is the last Day appointed for receiving One per Cent. the 4th Payment of the Call of Six per Cent. agreed to by a General Court of the said Company on the 12th of July last, in order to discharge their Debts [illegible] to the Governour [illegible] Every Day [illegible]

The moſt ſevere RHEUMATISM, in all Rheumatick Pains in the Limbs, &c. whether fixt or wandering, moſt certainly cured ſo as not to return again, by incomparable Chymical Drops, which without the leaſt Trouble or Diſorder entirely frees the Patient from that cruel Diſeaſe in a moſt wonderful Manner; for they immediately reſtore a due and equal Circulation to the Fluids in the minuteſt Cannals, by effectually attenuating and ſubduing the fatal LENTOR, or viſcid Matter that occaſion'd the Miſchief, in ſo much that all Manner of Pain, tho' never ſo violent, or of many Years ſtanding, preſently vaniſhes to the Admiration of all who have taken them, who could not believe it in the Power of Medicine to give ſuch ſudden and almoſt miraculous Eaſe, till happily convinced by their own Experience. Hundreds who had been miſerably afflicted with the Rheumatiſm for many Years together, and after trying moſt other Remedies, deſpaired of being ever relieved, have been almoſt inſtantly cured by theſe moſt excellent Drops, which were never ſo much as once known to fail. They are very agreeable to take, and for Safety might be given to a ſucking Infant without Inconvenience. Are ſold only at Jonah's Coffee-houſe, againſt the Angel and Crown Tavern in Threadneedle-Street, behind the Royal Exchange, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

The wonderful Elixir for the PALSY, famous in moſt Parts of Europe, and now recommended by the beſt Phyſicians in London, as the moſt infallible Medicine in the World for that Diſeaſe; for it abſolutely cures the Palſy almoſt a Miracle, be it ever ſo bad, univerſal, or of many Years ſtanding, and that after all other Remedies having prov'd ineffectual; reſtoring thoſe afflicted with it perfectly healthy, ſtrong, and vigorous. It momentarily warms, comforts, and ſtrengthens the enfeebled Nerves, and whole nervous Syſtem, revives the genuine Force and priſtine Vigour of the Sinews, Tendons, and Ligaments, fortifies and increaſes the animal Spirits, opens all Obſtructions that hinder a free Egreſs to invigorate the weakned Parts, and immediately drives away all Numbneſs, Deadneſs, Shaking, or Trembling, to Admiration; quickly reſtoring the true and ready Uſe of the Limbs, infallibly curing the Palſy, and all its Concomitant Symptoms, in a very ſhort Time, as Thouſands have experienced. All other Preparations of the Nerves it certainly cures, and is the eaſieſt Medicine to take, or occaſions the leaſt Trouble or Diſorder. It is to be had only at Mrs. Bell's, a Bookſeller, at the Croſs-keys and Bible, over-againſt the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.
